Kansas City's Pioneer Negro Jeweler,

J. A. WILSON,

Wyndham and Duval.

During a recent debate in the house of commons on the Irish land bill an opponent of that measure referred to Mr. Wyndham, chief secretary for Ireland, who is very handsome, as a charming highwayman who was robbing the British taxpayer. His critic applied to the chief secretary the epithet on Claude Duval in Covent Garden church: "Here lies Duval Reader, if male thou art, look to thy purse; if female, to thy heart."

Strenuous Times in Prospect.

Otto Fallmetzger, a schoolmaster of Schwerin, Germany, was run down the other day by a motor car. He was badly bruised, but was well enough to beat the driver into insensibility. Next he seized an axe and smashed the car. The driver is now suing for damages for assault, the owner of the motor car is suing him for damages and the schoolmaster counterclaims for the loss of a suit of clothes.

Polish Nationalists Active.

Polish nationalists held a great meeting in Lemberg recently for the purpose of keeping alive the Polish national sentiment. The gathering expressed sympathy with Polish resistance to German and Russian oppression. It also urged the direction of Polish effort in Austria, Russia and Germany toward the common aim of rational independence.

Diverting the Niagara.

The power plants now in operation at the falls divert one-seventeenth of the volume of Niagara river, and when the flumes now building are completed one-eighth less water will go over the falls, this aside from the water diverted by the Welland canal and the great volume of the Chicago drainage canal.

"Autos" Must Heed the Rules.

Motor cars we are assured have come to stay; they have created a new industry and a new source of pleasure; but they have also created a new abuse, and the condition on which they will continue to be tolerated is that they conform to the rules of roads made for others and not for them.

Time Will Tell About Chamberlain. It has been reported that the leading statesman of England will never accept a peerage, as he wishes to die plain "Mr. Chamberlain." Time will tell. The views of an Englishman on the subject of titles are somewhat like those of an American politician on the presidency.—Collier's Weekly.

"Next of Kin."

The relatives of a lady who had died, leaving a legacy to a favorite donkey in order to secure its comfort, recently came into court and asked for a decision as to who was to enjoy the legacy after the donkey's decease. "The next of kin," was the judge's verdict.—Punch.
